FLM 140
Film Production Practicum

Fall 2013
Thursday 1-5pm

Instructor: Stephanie Fitch
E-Mail: sfitch0016@kctcs.edu
Phone: 859.230.8699 (cell)
Office: Newtown Campus
Office Hours: Tuesday & Thursday: 5pm-6pm,

Monday & Wednesday: 12-1pm

*Or by appointment

Overview

In this course students will have a broad understanding of Digital Film Production from shooting, audio, lighting, set design and makeup.. Students will work on multiple productions in various crew roles.

Goals

Develop an understanding and knowledge of Digital Film Production, refine skills to shoot digital video, record live dialogue on a production, light a scene, design a set and work in multiple crew roles

- Shoot dramatic scenes with digital video camera
- Light a Dramatic scene
- Record Audio on Set
- Dress a set for a Dramatic Scene

Requirements

All students are required to attend all Production classes and work on each other dramatic productions. Class participation is a requirement not an option.

Evaluation

Class Attendance and Participation (20%)

Equipment Test: (20%)

Creative Lighting Test: (20%)

Dress the Set (20%)

Crew Evaluation (20%)

Milestones

September 26, 2013

Equipment Efficiency Test (general lighting, sound, camera)
*YOU CAN NOT CHECK OUT EQUIPMENT BEFORE YOU PASS THIS TEST.

October 24, 2013

Creative Lighting Test
Each Student must set up a dramatic lighting set up

TBA

Music Video Class Project

November 21, 2013

Dress the Set
Each Student must dress a set for a shoot – in studio – Kitchen, Bedroom, Office or Exterior

December 12, 2013

Crew Evaluation Forms DUE
Each Student must work on all final class projects as crew.