

Film Studies: Script to Screen Certificate

Academic Plan Code-

Description:

The certificate in Filmmaking: Script to Screen will provide students with a hands-on, project-based overview of all elements of filmmaking, from the treatment of the script, art design to the production and editing to the final distribution. Upon completion of the certificate program, students will have general practical experience in producing, directing, screen writing, art direction, casting, cinematography, lighting, sound, set design, graphics, editing, post-scoring and distribution. Students will acquire an understanding of the collaborative nature of filmmaking while working directly with industry professionals. Students will also increase their media literacy as they explore filmmaking as a means of communication and dissemination of ideas.
