

CIT 295—Independent Problems in Computer and Information Technologies (1-3)

Course Description

A problem or special project, approved by the instructor, provides an independent study objective for Computer Information Systems students. This course may be repeated to a maximum of three credits hours. Credit hours: 3. Prerequisites: none

Course Competencies

Upon successful completion of this course, the student can:

1. Demonstrate a working knowledge of the chosen independent problem.

Course Outline

This course has no standard outline since the class will vary depending on the topic(s) chosen. A course outline, including a listing of any laboratory exercises, will be filed in the office of the Dean of Academic Affairs when the course is offered.