

The Lexington Herald-Leader archives contain the full text of virtually every article published since 1983. Articles are added to the database usually within 48 hours of publication.

1) From the BCTC LRC homepage www.bluegrass.kctcs.edu/lrc, select Find an Article under the Quick Links section at the center of the page.

2) The Lexington Herald Leader Journal link is located under the Newspapers category on the right side of the page.

3) Enter the words or phrases that should be included in the articles you're looking for. Separate each word or phrase with spaces.

Ex. Wildcats basketball NCAA

(You do not need to type AND between your search terms)

4) Choose:

Newest first (this will retrieve the most recent articles)

OR

Best matches first (this will retrieve the most relevant articles first)

Search	6) Hit Enter or click Search to begin searching for articles.
	You can also Browse the news for a specific day: --Under the Search area is the Browse an Issue area You can choose a recent issue (last five days). You can also look at a particular date (like August 3, 2001) --Then hit Enter or click the Browse button.

Citing Articles:

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Click on the green Question Mark that says Show Help at the right of the screen. • Select View All Help Topics (this will open in a new window). • At the very bottom of the page under Helpful Information there are links to help you cite NewsBank articles in both MLA and APA.
--	--

HINT: Be sure to check with your instructor about the accuracy of your citation before handing in your paper.